

REV. GEORGE E. MENSAH, SR.

The Reverend George E. Mensah Sr., serves as the Executive Minister of the Shiloh Baptist Church, of Washington, District of Columbia. A native of the Republic of Liberia, the Reverend Mensah graduated from the Liberia Baptist Theological Seminary in 1987. He received the Master of Divinity degree in 1992 from Vanderbilt University Divinity School in Nashville Tennessee. The Reverend Mensah was ordained to the Gospel Ministry in 1998, by the Pleasant Green Baptist Church of Nashville, TN. The Reverend Mensah's services in ministry include the Temple Church of Nashville, TN., a four thousand member congregation, where he diligently served as the Assistant Pastor for Nurture. His responsibilities as a Servant Leader included serving the Educational, Youth, and Counseling Ministries of the Church.

He has served as the Traveling Secretary for the Liberia Baptist Sunday School Convention, where he coordinated the convention's educational program. In addition, he served ten years in various outreach programs, training counselors, and organizing AIDS education and youth employment programs. He is a former trainer and facilitator for the National Coalition Building Institute and the Southeastern Network of Service Providers. He is a member of the Baptist World Alliance Youth Ministry and serves on the International Planning Committee of the Baptist World Alliance Youth Conference. He also is a member of the Lott Carey Baptist Foreign Mission Convention.

The Reverend Mensah in his role Executive Ministry at Shiloh Baptist Church of Washington, has a variety of church ministry positions and responsibilities. As the Ministerial leader of the Christian Education Ministry, he coordinates and gives spiritual guidance to the leaders of the Christian Education Ministry, which includes the Lifestyle Institute: Bible Study that Changes Lives, Special Worship Services, Bible School, and the Dial-in Service. He is also the liaison for the Communication Ministry. The Ministry is responsible for “Spreading the Word” about Shiloh Baptist Church through several social and websites, streaming, and intranet systems. He also coordinates the Shiloh Baptist Church Information Technology Team.

The Reverend George E. Mensah has a heart for Shiloh’s heritage, traditions, and members and Community. It is evident in the way that he carries out his roles, responsibilities and the vision and mission of the church.

The Reverend Mensah is married to the former Rachel Brown. They have four children, Rachel Edith, George Eric, Jr., Alexes Tore, and Alexandra Camille.